CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant must pay the total criminal monetary penalties under the schedule of payments.

	Assessment	Fine
Totals:	$ 100.00	Waived

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive an approximately proportioned payment, unless specified otherwise in the priority order or percentage payment column below. However, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(i), all nonfederal victims must be paid before the United States is paid.

The court determined that the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest, and it is ordered that:

The interest requirement is waived.

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, payment of the total criminal monetary penalties shall be due as follows:

Payment to begin immediately

Special instructions regarding the payment of criminal monetary penalties: Defendant shall apply any federal income tax refund received during the period of supervision toward any unpaid court ordered monetary obligation(s).
Defendant shall be subject to financial disclosure throughout the period of supervised release and shall provide U. S. Probation with all requested financial documentation. He shall report all household income to U. S. Probation as requested.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of court.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed

Payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment, (2) restitution principal, (3) restitution interest, (4) fine principal, (5) fine interest, (6) community restitution, (7) penalties, and (8) costs, including cost of prosecution and court costs.
